Victoria,

A question – we were wondering if there was any new data available for Upper Ley Creek (basically anything since the 2017 Residential Property work)? If it was available - would it be something you could send to us (i.e., publicly available – not subject to privilege) or would we have to go through a FOIA request? Not asking for anything to be sent right now just trying to understand what is available and what the options are.

Thanks, Mark
